it would be to carry this project through, and the committee, comprising W. E. Dow, chairman; J. D. Stringfellow, W. B. Taylor, L. C. Lynch, J. S. Jolly, Dr. J. F. McKinstry, Jr., and Hon. Henry S. Chubb, in compliance with instructions, proceeded at once to work. The result of their labors is best told by their achievements.

The plans of Walters & Edwards, architects, Columbia, S. C., being most attractive in the matter of arrangement and architecture, were accepted, and the committee, having placed B. F. Johnson, a competent superintendent, in charge, began the work immediately. This was in October, 1906, and under the supervision and direction of this committee alteration and construction was pushed without interruption.

Plan of Building.

And now to the plan of the building. As one enters the neat iron gate and advances up the short flight of steps he finds himself on a large and roomy veranda extending on the front and west side of the building, with a cozy alcove at the corner, where on a hot summer day he may sit in a delightful shade, fanned by the balmy zephyrs from every quarter, while he gazes upon the beautiful park like surroundings. This veranda is lighted by electricity at night, making a beautiful effect, the lights' rays mingling with the green foliage.

As one enters the front doorway he is ushered into a spacious reception hall, artistically finished in red and white. The first impression is naturally a favorable one, but the further one advances the more interested he becomes.

To the left of this hall is the secretary's office, a cozy little nook formed in from a bay window.

The first room to the right is the reading-room, immediately back of which, connected by large sliding glass double doors, is the ladies' parlor, adjoining which is the ladies' lavatory. The former two are finished in stuccoed effect. The walls are azure blue, with ceiling white, and woodwork white enamel. The lavatory, which is equipped with all modern appliances, is dotted all over with pearls.

vice stairs. To the left, and directly opposite the cloak room, is the gentlemen's lounging room, finished in cherry and white, and the gentlemen's lavatory which, like that of the ladies', is equipped with all the latest improved devices.

It has been said that the way to reach a man's heart is through his stomach. Every Elk's heart is as big as his stomach—and the committee which selected the kitchen appliances undoubtedly realized this fact, because they themselves are Elks. If there is a more modernly equipped kitchen than the one in the Elks' club it would be difficult to find. The chef who is so fortunate as to preside over the culinary department of this club will have no complaint to make for lack of convenience. The pantry, which is a roomy one, is connected with the kitchen. A kitchen door also opens on to a commodious latticed back porch, with steps leading to the yard.

The Billiard Room

The most attractive room on the lower floor—at least that which will be the most attractive to many—is the billiard hall, a large room 35x40. This room is located on the extreme south end of the building. It was designed with especial view to light, having eight large windows. At night it will be illuminated with innumerable elec-floor is of white enamel. Upon reaching this floor we find the arrangement similar to the lower hallway. There is a reception hall, to the west of which is the office of the board of governors, a neat room with walls of sky blue, ceiling of white and woodwork in oak. In this room is a cheerful-looking fireplace, which adds variety to the plan.

In front of the building there is a nobby little alcove, which will afford a quiet rendezvous for the fellow who prefers retirement for a while.

Opposite the office of the board of governors is located the dining-room for members of the order and their lady escorts. This is a commodious room, finished in oak woodwork, cream walls and fancy ceiling. This room is destined to prove most popular, as it will afford the members of the club the opportunity to invite their lady friends to dine.

In the rear of the dining-room is the writing-room, finished in white and oak. Then comes the toilet-room and other lavatories, finished in white, with yellow pine panels.

The Lodge Room

The entire southern end of the building on this floor is occupied as the lodge room. This room is 35x60 feet, with a 19-foot ceiling. It is lighted by sixty-three 32 candle power incandescent lights. The finish is yellow pine [illegible]. The woodwork here is especially attractive, there being two trusses finished in massive heavy pine, from which drop thirty electric lights. When all lights are on this room is a marvel of electrical genius, and a sight the brilliancy and effect of which is very impressive.

At the east end of the lodge room is a raised rostrum, eighteen inches in heighth, eight feet deep, and extending entirely across the room. From this rostrum the exalted ruler presides, the treasurer and musician on the right, the secretary occupying a position on the left. This is a new feature to the average lodge room, the presiding officer usually occupying a small platform as a station. Adjacent to and connected with the lodge room is the property room, in which the paraphernalia is kept.

Another desirable and very convenient feature to the lodge room is an alcove, or porch, connected with the room on the northeast corner. This feature will be especially attractive when the lodge is entertaining, as it will afford a quiet retreat for a smoke without the inconvenience of being compelled to seek the front veranda or lounging-room.

To the left of the hallway on the second floor is the dining-room for gentlemen only. This room is connected with the kitchen below with a dumb waiter and speaking tube. This is also a desirable feature, designed for the sole comfort of the members of the club, who may sit and chat and enjoy their cigars after the meal is over.

The lodge room has two entrances—one at the end of the hall, through a large double doorway, the other through the ante-room. The former entrance will be used upon occasions when the club is entertaining.

The third floor comprises two large rooms. One of these will be used as a store room, while the other will be furnished as a janitor's sleeping room, the janitor being required to sleep on the premises.

roperty at Corner West Main and Court Streets Has Been Secured, and Work on New Temple Will Begin as Soon as Plans Are Accepted.

The Masonic fraternity of Gainesville, determined not to be outdone by any other secret fraternity, propose to erect a Masonic temple here which will be a credit to not only the order and the city, but the State as well. They have jointly purchased the property, the plans are being discussed, and within the next few weeks, if reports are true, actual work will begin on this magnificent structure.

The Masonic fraternities have purchased the lot upon which is located by Trinity Episcopal Church. This property is situated on the corner of West Main street N. and East Court street, and is a roomy lot, consisting of a half block.

While no "blow" has been made, the Masonic lodges of the city have been quietly working, with the result that they have almost decided upon a plan. During the next few days a building committee, consisting of one member from each lodge, will be appointed, when plans will be submitted and accepted, the contract will be let, and actual work will begin.

It has been said by a well known Mason of this city who is in a position to know that the building when completed will be a marvel of perfection. It will be of brick, with massive stone pillars and columns, and will occupy about half the lot. The building will be two stories, the lower floor being devoted to social features, while the upper story will be used as a lodge room.

When completed this temple will be one of Gainesville's magnificent buildings which will prove a big advertisement in the matter of her progress.

Will Build a Fine Home.

Gainesville, which has enjoyed the distinction of the progress in the northern part of the city, will soon have another fine residence. Sam T. Priotet decided to build a nice home on the corner of Roper avenue and Magnolia street.

The building will be two stories, eight rooms, and up-to-date in every way. It will be a credit to the city and to that section of the city.

NEW BUILDING PERMITS

Will Soon be the Order of the Day in Our New Suburb.

The College Park Company reports that their sale of lots in their new residential subdivision was a glorious success—the best people in Gainesville being among the purchasers, which assures a good tone to the entire neighborhood.

Probably one-third of those making purchases expressed their intentions to commence building operations at once, and it is safe to say that ten days will witness some work in that line—in fact, plans have already been submitted for a beautiful eight-room residence to occupy one of the lots near the center of the tract, on College Park avenue, and this house will be commenced as soon as the necessary arrangements for material and labor can be made.

The company is giving it's hearty co-operation in all matters of this sort, and this is evidently being much appreciated by those wishing to make their homes in this congenial community.

BREAKING AND ENTERING.

Five Prisoners Brought to Gainesville and Placed in Prison.

Constable J. D. Siford of Newberry arrived in the city Wednesday with five prisoners, Baisey Holt, Enoch Watson, Mathew Holt, Wade Stagers and Sydney McKeithen, all colored, committed in Justice Henderson's court at Newberry upon a charge of breaking and entering box cars of the Atlantic Coast Line railroad and taken freight therefrom.

In default of bond the prisoners were brought to jail here, and will be arraigned before the grand jury at the next term of the circuit court.

Baisey Holt is a female.

Open Air Meeting.

Gus Waters, the colored politician who seems to get more genuine pleasure out of a municipal campaign than all other qualified voters combined, declares that he must have his say, and requests The Sun to announce that there will be a meeting on the north side of the court house this evening. It will be an open air meeting, and from the band stand the "Hon. Augustus" will address his hearers.

The speaking will begin at 7:30 o'clock, and it is reasonably certain that all who can will be there.

THE 'SQUIRE'S DAUGHTER.

Interesting Three-Act Comedy to Be Presented Friday Night.

The good people of Rochelle and vicinity will have the pleasure Friday night of witnessing a fine play, the three-act comedy which has made such a hit, entitled "The 'Squire's Daughter."

This play will be put on for the benefit of the piano fund of Martha Perry Institute, of which Prof. J. H. Owens is principal. The school has been compelled to pay for its piano by this means, and so far has been quite successful.

The following will be the caste of characters:

'Squire Hawkins, a member of Congress ..... O. O. Thigpin
Josiah Brown, from the country ..... Ben Tillman
Albert Reade, not beyond redemption ..... J. H. Owens
Fred Dudley, a young lawyer ..... Andrew Zetrouer
Francais, a descendant from Napolean ..... Bob Zetrouer
Mrs. Hawkins, the head of the family ..... Miss Dina Jones
Stella Brown, able to take care of herself ..... Miss Willie James Lilla Hawkins, the 'Squire's daughter ..... Miss Patsy Zetrouer

This play is guaranteed to be one of the best ever seen in Rochelle, and the probability is that there will be a big crowd.

After the play the young folks will have plenty of amusements, and refreshments will be served.

PHIFER SAVINGS BANK

Alterations in Store Have Been Made, and Fixtures Will Soon Arrive.

Several weeks ago The Sun contained announcement to the effect that Phifer Bros., proprietors of New York Racket, would soon add another department to their progressive business in the nature of a savings bank. The furniture and fixtures, including a fine vault, were ordered some time ago, and have been expected daily for the past month.

The front of the store has been altered so as to accommodate this bank, and it is expected to install the furnishings within the next few days, and the new bank will be ready for business within the next thirty days.

This will be what the Phifers term a "poor man's bank," since the laboring class may deposit their earnings above living expenses each week. No matter how small, these deposits will receive attention, as this will be one of the specialties of the new institution.

An advertisement of the Phifer Bank will appear at the proper time.

Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup stimulates the liver and thoroughly cleanses the system and clears the complexion of pimples and blotches. It is the best laxative for women and children as it is mild and pleasant, and does not gripe or sicken. RHEUMATISM

AN ACID BLOOD POISON

Rheumatism is an acid blood poison, and the causes that produce it are often silently accumulating in the system for years. Poor digestion, stomach troubles, weak kidneys, torpid liver, and a general inactive condition of the system leaves the refuse and waste matter, which should be carried off, to sour and form uric acid, which is absorbed into the blood. When the blood is in this acid-charged condition, it deposits the poisons and irritating particles with which it is loaded in the muscles, nerves, joints and bones. Then Rheumatism gets possession of the system, and life is made miserable by its pains, aches and discomforts. The changing of the weather, exposure to cold and dampness, etc., always increase the trouble, and so severe does the pain become that quick relief must be had. A good liniment or plaster is often helpful, but it should be remembered that relief from such treatment is only temporary, because the trouble is in the blood and cannot be removed by external applications. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism by ridding the blood of the cause. It goes down into the circulation and by invigorating and purifying the blood of the acid-poison and sending a stream of fresh, rich blood to all parts, relieves the pain, reduces the inflammation, and permanently cures this painful disease. S. S. S. is the only safe treatment for Rheumatism, because it does not contain a particle of mineral in any form to damage the system. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice desired sent free.

the furnace, is 15x20, which will give ample storage room for fuel.

The floors throughout the building are stained, and are very attractive. There are double floors, lined with heavy paper, in order to muffle sound, in the lodge room, and also double floors in the billiard hall.

This entire building is lighted by electricity, and is equipped with the latest electric call-bell system, every room being connected with the annunciator. It is also steam-heated throughout.

The Club Garage.

For the convenience of members of the club who own automobiles, there hasbe en provided a garage on the premises, where machines may be properly housed and taken care of. This feature will be appreciated by automobilists.

In all, the new Elks' Home is complete as skill and a liberal expenditure could make it, and it is the pride of its promoters and builders, as well as the entire city.

DR. J. M. DELL
Secretary.

The Home Furnishings.

With all this surrounding splendor it is no more than proper to realize that the furniture of this building will be of the highest order, first-class and modern in every respect. Through a special committee, of which Dr. J. F. McKinstry, Jr., was chairman, the furniture was selected, and the greatest care in its selection was exercised. The furniture was specially designed for the purpose for which it was intended, and was personally selected by J. K Abrams, who made a special trip to the markets for the purpose. For elegance there will be nothing better in the State, and the entire furnishings will be in keeping with the building and the standard of the order.

ORGANIZATION OF LODGE.

Was Established Wednesday, August 30, 1905, With Good Membership.

Gainesville Lodge No. 860, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, was instituted on Wednesday, August 30, 1905, with the following charter membership:

L. C. Lynch, Henry S. Chubb, A. M. Cushman, Lee Graham, L. J. Burkhim, E. J. Sheffield, J. F. McKinstry, Jr., Marcus Endel, J. S. Jolly, Antoine Paul, J. A. Goodwin, Benj. K. Thrower, E. A. Cooper, J. M. Turner, Jr., J. M. Dell, Jr., L. C. Cobb, E. Lee Hughes, J. B McDonald, A. H. Blanding, R. L. Black, Chas. D. Dennis, Jesse E. Burtz, W. N. Benedict, J. M. Endel, H. C. Futch, H. H. McCreary, A. F. O'Neill, B. Daugherty, Frank E. Dennis, H. C. Stevens, W. R. Eddins, W. C. Summers, D. B. Morris, E. C. Pierson, J. A Ettel, B H. Chase, Drayton Avera, M. F. McCook, W. E Dow, D. D. Powell, Joe Manasse, J. G. Torrey, Robt. E. Davis.

The institution of the lodge was the signal for a "hot old time" in Gainesville that night, as the members of Ocala lodge, under direction of whom the initiations proceeded, came in full force, bringing all necessary paraphernalia, including the great and only American billy-goat. The brothers from Ocala were strengthened by a goodly force from Jacksonville and other lodges, and altogether the Elks came with the determination of doing the thing up right and having a good time—and they did. From early afternoon until after midnight things were lively in Mason hall, after which the members of Gainesville Lodge and their visiting brothers enjoyed a banquet at the Brown House, which naturally called for a round of addresses. It was the "wee sma' hour" before the crowd dispersed, but everyone was as happy as he was fatigued from his experiences of the night preceding.

REV. S. B. ROGERS
Chaplain.

W. E. DOW
Chairman Building Committee.

Gainesville Lodge has grown wonderfully since its organization, having now close on to 200 members. With due deference to other secret societies, it may be said that it is the most popular of all lodges here, as well as in nearly every other city where the order is established, by reason of its social features, which can be found in no other secret society.

E. A. STRONK
Organist.

Louis C. Lynch, our present postmaster, was honored as the first exalted ruler of the lodge, he being succeeded by Hon. Henry S. Chubb, the present incumbent. These, with other officers, have served efficiently and faithfully, and it is largely due to their careful administration that the lodge has gained such prominence in the field of Elkdom.

The Officers.

For the present term the lodge has prospered under the following officers:

Henry S Chubb, Exalted Ruler; Robt. E. Davis, Esteemed Leading Knight; J. W Blanding, Esteemed Loyal Knight; Rev. F. H. Craighill, Esteemed Lecturing Knight; Rev. S. B. Rogers, Chaplain; Dr. J. M. Dell, Secretary; Lee Graham, Treasurer; E. A. O'Neill, Esquire; C. C. Chitty, Inner Guard; E. A. Stronk, Organist; T. B. Ellis, Jr., Tyler; J. B. Padgett, E. E. Cannon, J. S Jolly, Trustees; L. C Lynch, P. E. R., Representative to Grand Lodge.

Dismissed from Mail Service.

San Francisco, March 27.—Hugh Shaugh, the organizer of the Brotherhood of railway postal clerks was dismissed from the railway mail service Monday. Shaugh was employed in the Los Angeles division and was suspended two weeks ago and ordered to file a written statement giving reasons why he should not be removed for encouraging insubordination among clerks and with having collected a fund for the purpose of influencing congress to raise the wages of clerks. He filed the statement as requested and the answer came in the shape of a removal notice.

Overjoyed at News.

Hattiesburg, Miss., March 27.—In the excess of his joy over having his death sentence commuted by Governor Vardaman, Red Daniels, a convicted murderer in the New Augusta jail, in this county, came near killing himself. News of the commutation was conveyed to him. He gave one whoop and then leaped into the air. He forgot that he was cooped in a steel cage with a low ceiling. His head struck the sheet of steel above him with such force that he fell to the cell floor senseless.

Charged with Embezzlement.

Trinidad, Colo., March 27.—H. S. Haines, 19 years old, is under arrest here, having been taken into custody upon request of the authorities of Abilene, Tex. Haines is charged with embezzling $2,000 from a hardware firm at Abilene in whose employ he had been for several months. Information is that the money was taken to assist an invalid brother to get from Morgantown, W. Va., to Colorado, to recuperate his health. Haines declares that he is wrongfully accused.

Beats Man To Death.

Asheville, N. C., March 27.—For reasons that he has not yet divulged, Zeek Austin, 22 years old, a notorious character of the Beaver Dam section, stole up behind George Gaddy, while the latter was seated on a log near the Elk Mountain cotton mills, 5 miles from this city, and struck his victim two heavy blows on the skull with a club, from the effects of which Gaddy died shortly before 1 o'clock Monday night. Austin was arrested ten minutes later and now lies in jail charged with murder.

Hearne as president of the company. Wealthy Man Suicides.

New Orleans, March 27.—Thomas F. Ward, the St. Johnsville, N. Y., man who committed suicide near the city park race track, last week, was the district attorney of St. Johnsville, N. Y., a man worth about $150,000. He was crazed by over work, brought on by the strain of the trial of the murderer, Chester Gillette, who was sentenced to the electric chair as responsible for the death of Miss Grace Brown, of Herkimer, N. Y.

Street Car Men Will Strike.

Montgomery, Ala., March 27.—One hundred and fifty street railway men are about to strike. Several who have joined the union have been either discharged or ordered to report at the office. At a meeting called for Tuesday, it is expected an agreement will be reached to stop work. Manager Ragland has openly said he will not work union men.

This man bought a supply of tobacco without acquainting himself with the distinctive taste of SCHNAPPS Tobacco, which has the cheering qualities that gratify his desire to chew, and at less expense than cheap tobacco.

SCHNAPPS has been advertised in this paper so that every chewer has had an opportunity to get acquainted with the facts and know that drugs are not used to produce the cheering quality found in the famous Piedmont country flue-cured tobaccos, and that SCHNAPPS is what he ought to chew. Still there are chewers who accept other and cheaper tobaccos that do not give the same pleasure.

Some day they'll get a taste of the real Schnapps—they'll realize what enjoyment they've missed by not getting SCHNAPPS long ago—then they'll feel like kicking themselves.

SCHNAPPS is sold everywhere in 5 cent cuts, and 10 and 15 cent plugs. Be sure you get the genuine.

Mr. Roosevelt can drive four railroad magnates without a single slip of the ribbons.

Somehow or other the wave of frenzied finance always seems to flow Mr. Thos. W. Lawson's way.

John Alexander Dowie's last act was to write a document threatening to return and smite his enemies. Great ghosts!

Down in Central America they are likely at any hour to have a frightful battle between a Honduran rowboat and a Nicaraguan canoe.

A correspondent of The New York Sun is attempting to discover "a cure for poetry." He will never succeed; toshed in the waste basket, it will rise again.

Five women bull fighters were hurt in the ring at Jeurez, Mexico, just across the river from El Paso. The brutes evidently resented the use of hatpins as weapons.

Whatever kind of a deal the railroad presidents may cook up with President Roosevelt, neither the State Legislatures nor the voters will ratify it unless it is a square deal for the public.

This is the "silly season" of Republican politics when the puppets are trotted out for their trial heats. Later in the year the entries will be made for the real race and the reactionary and administration candidates will by that time be developed.

The young man who sits back of you in the theatre and accompanies the musical numbers by whistling and beating time with his feet, is almost as objectionable as the young woman who has seen the show before and feels in duty bound to tell you about it.

President Stickney, president of the Chicago Great Western railroad, declares: "The people are now laying the foundation, firm and strong, for a tremendous panic." It is extraordinary how certain associations will warp the judgment of even sensible men, for it is not the people who are the panic breeders, Mr. Stickney, but the frenzied financiers of Wall street.

RAILROAD REPRODUCTION.

There are two ends to the railroad question—one is the transportation of goods and passengers and the other the speculative and Wall Street end. These two different interests must be divorced before there can be justice to the public through reasonable rates. There can never be reasonable rates until the question is settled of how much of the stocks and bonds that have been issued are to earn dividends. Are the fraudulent issues to be chargeable to the public on the same basis as the securities, the proceeds of which were actually expended in building and equipping the railroads? Are the Chicago and Alton stocks and bonds to be considered a fair debt upon the people who are customers of that railroad? Are Mr J. P. Morgan and his associates to have the right to tax the people who do business with the Southern Railway on the basis of $180,000,000 of stocks and $170,048,945 of bonds, or at the rate $70,685 per mile of line, when it could be duplicated for about one-half of that amount? Must the people forever pay interest upon $302,847 per mile of the Erie Railway, when it would cost less than one-sixth of that sum to replace it in better shape than it now is? The Baltimore and Ohio with $108,079 per mile, the Union Pacific with $133,535, and a number of other railroads with but little less than $100,000 per mile of stocks and bonds, are in the same class. The Union Pacific actually paid ten per cent on its enormous capitalization which would be nearly 30 per cent on what it could be duplicated for.

The census bureau in 1905 issued a bulletin on the commercial value of the railways of the United States which gave their total value as the enormous sum of $11,244,852,681. This is generally considered as a much greater sum than they could be reproduced for, yet the average value per mile given for the railroads in Nebraska, which includes the Union Pacific Railroad, is $45,200, or a little less than one-third of the amount of the stocks and bonds upon which it is paying dividends and interest. This indicates the enormous overcapitalization of many of the railroads, for similar differences appear with other railroads taking the same official figures.

No wonder the railroads thus overcapitalized do not want an investigation of their value to be made as a basis for determining what reasonable rates for passengers and freight would be, when their fraudulent watered stock is left out of the calculation.

It will be a large undertaking to arrive at the actual cost of reproducing the railroads, but it must be done before reasonable rates can be established. The values which the States have agreed on as the basis for taxation differ so radically that it is worthless as even a guide to the actual value. The official figures of the average tax paid by the railroads in all the States in 1904 for each mile of line is but $303 and in Nebraska the amount is but $224 per mile, which would be but about one-sixth of one per cent on the capitalization value of the Union Pacific. That small sum is about one-sixth of what the people of Nebraska pay as taxes on the valuation of their property and in many States the taxes paid by the railroads are even less than in Nebraska.

From this partial glance at actual railroad values and the enormous difference between the stock market value and the taxation value it is plain that the Democratic plan of investigating the value that the railroads can be replaced for is the first step and the only sensible and just proposition for arriving at what are reasonable rates.

As the Republican leaders declare they will persist in trying to saddle the people with a ship subsidy tax, the steamship trust must have promised to put up some more boodle for campaign expenses.

Some years ago the Massachusetts Railroad Commission advocated the building or purchase and operation by the government of a few interstate lines of railroad to act as a regulator of rates by force of competition. Governor Hoke Smith of Georgia is now proposing the same plan. The United States lost a very favorable opportunity of inaugurating such competition when it let go its hold on the Union Pacific railroad and allowed the Harriman and Standard Oil crowd to get it at their own price, with the connivance of the Republican politicians.

The constitution adopted by the Oklahoma convention provides that a majority vote can change the constitution when submitted to popular vote and the initiative and referendum is provided for, modeled somewhat after the Oregon plan. There should be no trouble in the people of Oklahoma getting what legislation they desire if they evince that eternal vigilance which is the price of liberty.

The Republican party likes to be bossed; whether the boss is a good boss or a bad boss it cannot get along without him. The proof of this is that although President Roosevelt as the big boss is secretly repudiated by most of the Republican leaders, yet they one and all dare not openly oppose his policies or dictation.

When there is a Wall Street fight on why does the government always take sides with the Bulls by coming to their rescue with all the spare money in the Treasury? Are the Bulls the only financiers that contribute so liberally of life insurance and other funds that do not belong to them, to Republican campaign funds?

SENOR BARAHONA WOUNDED.

Many Commanders Were Made Captives in Important Battle.

Managua, Nicaragua, March 27.—It is stated on the highest authority here that President Bonilla, of Honduras, after his retreat to Amapala, following the defeat of the Honduran-Salvadoran forces at Choluteca by the Nicaraguan army, ordered from Amapala the surrender of Tegucigalpa, capital of Honduras, to the victorious troops. The city is now in the possession of the Hondurian-Nicaraguan government junta.

Panama, March 27.—The news that an important battle has been fought near Tegucigalpa between the Honduran-Salvadoran forces and those of the Nicaraguans, and that Senor Barahona, Honduran minister of war, was mortally wounded and many commanders captured, is fully confirmed.

The allied armies of Honruras and Salvador are described as completely demoralized. News of the termination of the war is momentarily expected.

Buenos Ayres, March 27.—The Prosna, speaking of the proposed intervention of the United States and Mexico to stop the Central American war says:

"Any armed intervention in the struggles between American countries amounts to a limitation of sovereignty. The smallness of a country does not authorize a world power to violate the rules of international law.

"Therefore, only friendly mediation can be praised, never armed intervention."

Weak Stomach Causes Sickness.

Different Symptoms That Result From Indigestion — How to Cure by Strengthening the Stomach.

If you have ever suffered with a weak stomach you must realize that the digestive system is to the body what the foundation is to the house—the base of support and strength.

Whatever hurts your stomach or lessens its power, hurts all other parts of the body and impairs their powers. If the stomach is weak and distressed, one organ after another will be involved until the heart, kidneys and liver are all distressed.

Get the stomach right and health will naturally come to the other organs. This explains why a good many people who have doctored for years for diseases of the heart, kidneys or liver, have at last been cured by Mi-o-na stomach tablets. They found to their astonishment and happiness that when the weak stomach was strengthened, their health returned, the heart became regular, the torpid liver active and the kidneys healthy.

Do not think we claim Mi-o-na is a "cure-all." It is not. It is a specific for all distresses of the stomach, and when it strengthens the stomach and cures indigestion, you will soon be well all over without further medicine.

FIRE DESTROYS MILL VILLAGE.

One Hundred Operatives Are Rendered Homeless.

Spartanburg, S. C., March 27.—Eight tenement houses at Spartan Mills have been destroyed by fire. The fire department was working under difficulties as the fire was remote from the center of the city.

The fire originated in the house of J. M. Carver, on the east side of Forest street, and after burning six houses on the east side, crossed the street and in less than two hours 40 houses in the block between Farley and Arch streets, on the west side of Forest, were destroyed.

The fire crossed the tracks of the Southern road and eaten its way through a thickly populated section of the mill village.

The Spartan mills shut down shortly after the fire broke out and thousands of operatives rushed to the fire-stricken village in a state of wild excitement.

The loss to the Spartan company will probably amount to $50,000, which is covered by insurance. The factory operatives lost all their effects.

One hundred families will be rendered homeless.

The work of rebuilding will commence immediately, it is said.

Woman Shoots a Physician.

Columbia, S. C., March 27.—Dr. W. L. Linder, a prominent young physician of Union, was shot and seriously wounded by a negro woman in his office. The cause of the shooting has not yet been ascertained. The woman, who is a mulatto about 42 years old, had gone to the physician's office, apparently for medical treatment. It is alleged that while the doctor had his back turned he heard a pistol report, and upon wheeling around, saw a pistol leveled at him. He grappled with the woman and gained possession of the revolver. Only one shot was fired. Dr. Linder's wound is not regarded as fatal. The woman was arrested.

From the Lakes to the Gulf.

Bristol, Tenn., March 27—Bird M. Robinson, president of the Mobile, Jackson and Kansas City railway, was in the city Monday and confirmed the rumor that his railroad would build a trunk line from New Orleans and connect with the 'Frisco and Rock Island forming a new and much shorter trunk line from the Great Lakes to the gulf. The new railroad will be a funnel for the large freight traffic from the Rock Island and 'Frisco to gulf points. The Mobile, Jackson and Kansas City will build from its present southern terminus, at Mobile, to New Orleans, and from Middleton to Joppa, Ills., or Paducah, Ky.

Yaqui Indians Put to Rout.

Guayamas, Mexico, March 27.—In a fight between a band of Yaqui Indians and soldiers and rurales in the hills of the Barrigonna district, north of this place, two Indians were killed and several Indians and six soldiers were wounded. In the fight the Yaquis left in their camp two little boys about seven years old. They were taken by the soldiers. The soldiers, under command of Villareal, are reported to be in pursuit of the fleeing Indians, who, it is thought, are seeking reinforcements and an engagement is expected.

Tried to Hang Small Boy.

Augusta, Ga., March 27.—Arthur Butler, a negro, is being held for assault with intent to kill an 8-year-old negro boy, whom he had first beaten into insensibility, and was later in the act of hanging. A rope had been thrown over the limb of a tree and the boy was being drawn up when the neighbors interfered. Butler was pursued by a mob of blacks and whites bent on lynching him, but he was safely landed in jail. The boy was no relation to Butler and no motive for the deed has been learned.

Foot Bagwell Gets Life Sentence.

Fayetteville, Ga., March 27.—Fayette superior court has adjourned. The only conviction for murder was that of Foot Bagwell, for killing John Williams, both negroes, three years ago. A mistrial was declared at the last March term. The jury deliberated one night and half a day this time, and rendered a verdict of guilty, recommending life imprisonment, which sentence Judge Reagan imposed. A motion is made for a new trial.

OLIVER IS AGAINST RED TAPE METHODS

Contractor Regrets Action of President Roosevelt.

ARMY METHODS WILL NOT AVAIL

Says Army Engineer Will Be Hampered in Their Work on the Panama Canal by Dictatorial Methods of Officers.

New Orleans, March 27.—At Monday night's session of the southern states and gulf coast Panama canal conference W. J. Oliver, the contractor, made the following criticism of the canal work:

"It is greatly to be regretted that the administration has decided to place the construction of the Panama canal in the hands of army engineers instead of committing its fate to contractors. No matter how capable the army engineers may be, their training has not been along the lines of construction and direction on a large scale. They are totally without organization to draw from and will always be wound up in costly red tape. Army methods will not avail, for a civilization always has one more right than a soldier—he can quit—and the high-spirited American citizen will certainly exercise that right when he comes to face the arbitrary, dictatorial methods of army."

The conference has adopted the following resolutions:

1. The natural economical route for a large part of the United States for passengers and materials intended for Panama is via the ports of the gulf of Mexico.

2. The Isthmian canal commission has been operating what is practically a government-owned steamship service from New York to Havana, and this exclusive service via New York places the industries of the south, the gulf states, the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Alabama and Georgia valleys and contiguous territory at a prohibitive disadvantage.

3. The southern states and gulf coast Panama conference represents to President Roosevelt that at least two of the government's steamships should be operated out of a gulf port, because of its closer proximity, by some 600 miles, to Colon than New York.

4. We strongly protest against the discriminations of the purchasing department of the Panama Railroad and Steamship line, whereby the large majority of orders are confined to the eastern states.

We see in this virtual monopoly of the present canal trade the gravest danger to the future prosperity of sections of the United States, particularly the southern and gulf coast states, as the persistent diversion of trade to eastern ports will have the certain tendency to establish and maintain a channel of commerce in that direction from and though the Panama canal when it shall have been completed, thereby cutting off the natural ports from successful competition.

The resolutions concluded by petitioning President Roosevelt for the Government-controlled ships and also to investigate the reason why the [illegible]

Inspecting the Waterways.

New Orleans, March 27.—A party of members of the rivers and harbors committee of the house of representatives [illegible] of inspection of the waterways and harbors of Louisiana. They were the guests of the Louisiana congressmen. The party comprised Congressmen James H. Davidson, Wisconsin; D. S. Alexander, New York; Ernest F. Acheson, Pennsylvania; E. C. Ellis, Missouri; Russell P. Bishop, Michigan; Benjamin F. Bolger, Texas, and Joseph E. Ransdell, Louisiana, all members of the rivers and harbors committee, and Congressmen A. P. Pujo, and R. F. Broussard, of Louisiana. Governor Blanchard, of Louisiana, and Lieutenant Governor J. Y. Sanders, Jr., H. L. Gueydan and Leonard Locke, respectively the chairman and secretary of the Louisiana interstate waterways commission, were also members of the party.

G. B. Burhans Testifies After Four Years

G. B. Burhans, of Carlisle Center, N. Y., writes: "About four years ago I wrote you stating that I had been entirely cured of a severe kidney trouble by taking less than two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure. It entirely stopped the brick dust sediment, and pain and symptoms of kidney disease disappeared. I am glad to say that I have never had a return of any of those symptoms during the four years that have elapsed and I am evidently cured to stay cured, and heartily recommend Foley's Kidney Cure to anyone suffering from kidney or bladder trouble." Slashed Throat on a Train.

Danville, Va., March 27.—Stuart F. Bradburn, son of J. F. Bradburn, a prominent citizen of Bridgewater, Va., made a sensational attempt at suicide on a Southern railway train, at the station here, by cutting his throat with a pocket knife. He inflicted a wound which reached the swallow of his throat and, with the blood spurting out of the wound, he rushed out among a large crowd at the station and fought savagely the policeman, who wrested the knife from his hands. An operation was performed at the hospital and the victim has a chance of recovery. Relatives from Bridgewater have arrived here. The man refused to give his name, or the motive for the deed.

Worked Like a Charm.

Mr. D. N. Walker, editor of that spicy journal, The Enterprise, Louisa, Va., says: "I ran a nail in my foot last week and at once applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve. No inflammation followed; the salve simply healed the wound." Heals every sore, burn and skin disease. Guaranteed at all drug stores. 25c

A Woman's Back

Pile many aches and pains caused by weakness and failing of other organs [illegible] of female weakness are frequent backache, dizziness, blindness, specks or dark spots floating before the eyes, gnawing sensation in stomach, dragging or bearing down in lower abdominal or pelvic region, disagreeable drains from pelvic organs, faint spells with general weakness.

If any considerable number of the above symptoms are present there is no remedy that will give quicker relief or a more permanent cure than Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It has a record of over forty years of cures. It is the most potent invigorating tonic and strengthening nervine known to medical science. It is made of the glyceric extracts of native medicinal roots found in our forests and contains not a drop of alcohol or harmful or habit-forming drugs. Its ingredients are all printed on the bottle-wrapper and attested under oath as correct.

Every ingredient entering into "Favorite Prescription" has the written endorsement of the most eminent medical writers of all the several schools of practice—more valuable than any amount of non-professional testimonials—though the latter are not lacking, having been contributed voluntarily by grateful patients in numbers to exceed the endorsements given to any other medicine extant for the cure of woman's ills.

You cannot afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for this well proven remedy OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, even though the dealer may make a little more profit thereby. Your interest in regaining health is paramount to any selfish interest of his and it is an insult to your intelligence for him to try to palm off upon you a substitute. You know what you want and it is his business to supply the article called for.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the original "Little Liver Pills" first put up by old Dr. Pierce over forty years ago, much imitated but never equaled. Little sugar-coated granules—easy to take as candy.

PROHIBITION IN KENTUCKY

Several Saloon Keepers Have Been Placed Under Arrest.

Louisville, Ky., March 27.—A special to the Evening Post from Lebanon, Ky., says:

A local option election is being held here Tuesday and scenes of considerable excitement. Tuesday morning a procession made up of two thousand women and children paraded the principal streets shouting and cheering for the abolishment of saloons.

Warrants were sworn out for R. N. Wathen, president of the Kentucky Distillers' Association, and Colonel Wallace Cardwell, of the governor's staff and about 12 other citizens, charging them with bribery.

All the parties gave bond except Wathen and Cardwell, who insisted on going to jail, but were allowed to go free. The cases will be heard Thursday.

Former Chief of Police Yowell was arrested for carrying concealed weapons.

Both sides claim a victory. Lebanon is in Marion county, one of the largest distilling counties in the state.

And remember the next time you suffer from pain—caused by damp weather—when your head nearly bursts from neuralgia—try Ballard's Snow Liniment. It will cure you. A prominent business man of Hempstead, Texas, writes: "I have used your liniment. Previous to using it I was a great sufferer from rheumatism and neuralgia. I am pleased to say that now I am free from these complaints. I am sure I owe this to your liniment." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

MORPHINE GIVEN BY MISTAKE.

Death of John Trippe at Cartersville, Georgia.

Cartersville, Ga., March 27.—John Trippe, brother of R. J. & J. E. Medlock, of Alachua, [illegible] died in this city Monday from an overdose of morphine given him by mistake. His health being frail, he came here some time ago for treatment under his brother, Dr. R. J. Trippe.

Dr. Trippe had an urgent call at 1 o'clock Sunday night and was hurrying away from home when his brother asked him for a dose of strychnine.

In his haste, Dr. Trippe picked up a bottle containing morphine and gave it to his brother. The mistake was soon discovered and everything possible done to save the dying man. He died early Monday morning.

Mr. Trippe was 28 years of age, and has one brother living in Atlanta. The remainder of the family is of Cartersville.

Dangers of Pneumonia.

A cold at this time if neglected is liable to cause pneumonia which is so often fatal, and even when the patient has recovered the lungs are weakened, making them peculiarly susceptible to the development of consumption. Foley's Honey and Tar will stop the cough, heal and strengthen the lungs and prevent pneumonia. Lagrippe coughs yield quickly to the wonderful curative qualities of Foley's Honey and Tar. There is nothing else "just as good." J. W. McCollum & Co.

Storm Causes Prices to Advance.

San Francisco, March 27.—Alarm is freely expressed in all departments of this city's commercial and industrial activities over the disastrous effect of a recent storm. Building is almost at a stand still, teaming is stopped, workingmen in all lines are idle, prices of food stuffs are jumping alarmingly and starvation is facing the thousands of horses which do the heavy hauling for rebuilding a metropolis. The latter difficulty is by far the most pressing. No hay is being brought to San Francisco. Only a small quantity of green product is coming through. Potatoes and onions will be a luxury in a day or two, for already prices are climbing to the emergency figures.

Re-Adjustment of Wage Approved.

Washington, March 27.—The navy department has approved the readjustment of wages of the employes at the League Island Navy yard, at the city of Philadelphia, recommended by the local naval board. The result is a general increase in the wages of wharf-keepers, metal workers, pile drivers, ship-keepers, steam fitters, sheet metal workers, plasterers, all around machinists, ordnance men, tool makers, mill men, riggers, sail makers and helpers (riggers).
